V. (Five) Bodies of the Bank and Management

Bodies of the Bank

Article 10 (Ten)

The bodies of the Bank shall be:

- the General Meeting of the Bank,
- the Supervisory Board of the Bank,
- the Management Board of the Bank.

The General Meeting of the Bank

Article 11 (Eleven)

The shareholders exercise their rights relating to the Bank's affairs at general meetings of the Bank.

Conditions for Participation and Voting at General Meetings

Article 12 (Twelve)

Taking into account the class of their shares, only shareholders who are registered in the Share Register kept by Klirinško depotna družba, d.d., Ljubljana, as at the end of the fourth day prior to the General Meeting, or their legal representatives or authorised persons who present a written power of attorney can attend the General Meeting and vote, provided that they make their intention to participate in the General Meeting and vote known in due time, i.e. at least at the end of the fourth day prior to the General Meeting, with a declaration of the total number of their shares.

In cases when shares have not been issued or distributed, the notice of a General Meeting is to specify the conditions under which the shareholders are entitled to participate and vote at the General Meeting.

The notice of convocation may, in accordance with legislation, more precisely stipulate the conditions of admittance to the General Meeting.

Convening General Meetings of the Bank

Article 13 (Thirteen)

The General Meeting is convened by the Management Board of the Bank. The General Meeting may be convened by the Supervisory Board, in particular in cases where the Management Board fails to convene the General Meeting on time or when a convocation of the General Meeting is necessary to ensure unhindered operations of the Bank. The General Meeting shall be convened in cases laid down by law and held at least as the Annual General Meeting or as may be necessary for the benefit of the Bank.

The General Meeting of the Bank, which shall decide on allocation of distributable profit and on relief shall be held within the first eight month following the end of the financial year, unless the legislation prescribes otherwise. As a rule the venue of the General Meeting shall be the locality of the registered office of the Bank, yet it may be convened also in another locality within the Republic of Slovenia specified by the convenor.

The notice of convocation of the General Meeting must be published no less than 30 (thirty) days before the date of the General Meeting. The published notice of convocation of the General Meeting shall also contain proposals for passing resolutions and the statement of the venue where the materials about to be presented for decision-making shall be made available as of the date of convocation of the General Meeting. The Bank shall immediately submit to all shareholders upon their written request the entire material for the General Meeting. A General Meeting may also be convened by registered letter sent to all shareholders of the Bank according to the law regulating companies.

A General Meeting may be cancelled no later than three working days before the day of the meeting in a logically identical manner to the manner in which it was convened. Provided that the conditions of the meeting remain the same, the date of the General Meeting may be postponed for up to 15 (fifteen) days.

If all shareholders of the Bank are present or represented at the General Meeting, the General Meeting may adopt resolutions regardless of the provisions of the law or these Articles of Association about the content of the convocation, convocation deadline, publication of convocation, provisions on deadlines and the supplement to the General Meeting's agenda as well as the provisions on the majority required for the Bank's Management Board to adopt a decision on the convocation of the General Meeting.

Convening a General Meeting on Minority Request

Article 14 (Fourteen)

The shareholders collectively holding at least one twentieth of the share capital are entitled to demand in writing that the Management Board convene the General Meeting of the Bank. Together with their request, they must submit a written agenda for each proposed item on the agenda to be decided upon by the General Meeting of the Bank or an explanation to the item on the agenda if no resolution is adopted in relation to such item by the General Meeting of the Bank.

In such a case as described in the preceding paragraph, the Management Board of the Bank must convene the General Meeting of Shareholders within a period not exceeding one month from the receipt of a complete request in writing.

Amendments to the Agenda

Article 15 (Fifteen)

One or more shareholders holding collectively at least one twentieth of the share capital of the Bank may request in writing that an additional item be put on the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The request shall be granted if it contains a formulated and substantiated proposal of a resolution within the competence of the General Meeting, or an explanation to the item on the agenda if no resolution is adopted in relation to such item by the General Meeting of the Bank and if the shareholder delivered the request to the Bank not later than seven days after the publication of the notice of the General Meeting of the Bank. In such case, the Management Board or the Supervisory Board of the Bank shall immediately after the expiry of the deadline from the previous sentence of this paragraph publish a supplemented agenda of the General Meeting or a clean copy of the agenda in accordance with applicable regulations and in the same manner in which the notice of the General Meeting of the Bank was published. In relation to the sending of additional items on the agenda pursuant to this paragraph, the shareholders must have the possibility to submit such request to the Bank using electronic channels.

Representation of Shareholders at General Meetings

Article 16 (Sixteen)

Shareholders may exercise their rights at the General Meeting in person, through a proxy or through a legal representative. Entitlement to representation is to be proven by delivering an appropriate document to the Bank. A proxy shall remain with the Bank. The description of the required appropriate document may be defined in the published notice of the General Meeting. Regarding the proof on the entitlement of the proxy to represent the shareholder, the shareholder or the proxy shall be enabled to submit such proof to the Bank using electronic channels.

Conduction of General Meetings

Article 17 (Seventeen)

The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted by the Chair of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Chair of the General Meeting of the Bank shall be elected by the General Meeting when the meeting starts.

The Bank's General Meeting shall be conducted by the Chair of the General Meeting.

Majority Required for the Adoption of Resolutions

Article 18 (Eighteen)

An ordinary majority of votes cast by shareholders shall be required for the adoption of resolutions by the General Meeting of the Bank, unless applicable laws or these Articles of Association stipulate a larger majority or other conditions.

A qualified majority of at least 75% (seventy-five percent) of the votes cast by shareholders shall be required for the adoption of the following resolutions of the General Meeting:

- adoption of the Bank's Articles of Association and any amendments thereto,

- the organization engaged to audit the financial statements of the Bank,
- the status restructuring of the Bank (merger, division, transfer of property, changed form of legal organisation) and dissolution of the Bank.

The General Meeting of the Bank also adopts resolutions on all other matters brought within its powers by applicable regulations and these Articles of Association.

Supervisory Board of the Bank

Article 20 (Twenty)

The Supervisory Board of the Bank is composed of 9 (nine) members who are appointed and recalled by the General Meeting of the Bank from among the persons nominated by shareholders or the Supervisory Board of the Bank. Two thirds of Supervisory Board members shall be independent experts. Independent experts are deemed to be those who are not and have not been employed by the Government of the Republic of Slovenia in the past 24 (twenty-four) months since the appointment to the Supervisory Board and who have not occupied in the past 24 (twenty-four) months a management or executive position in political parties in the Republic of Slovenia.

Only those natural persons who meet the requirements and are not subject to the restrictions stipulated by the law on banking, companies and other regulations may be elected members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank.

The Supervisory Board may pass its Rules of Procedure which lay down more detailed principles, procedures and the manner of operations of the Supervisory Board.

Members of the Bank's Supervisory Board are entitled to a reimbursement of travel expenses up to the amount defined in the regulations on the reimbursement of expenses in connection with work and other income which is included in the tax base. The Members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank are entitled to remuneration for performing their function and/or attendance fees for the membership on the Supervisory Board of the Bank and the committees of the Supervisory Board of the Bank stipulated by the resolution of the General Meeting of the Bank applicable at the time.

Term of Office of Members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank

Article 21 (Twenty-One)

The members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank shall be elected for the period lasting from the day of their election until the end of the Bank's Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, which decides on the use of accumulated profit for the fourth business year since they have been elected, unless otherwise stipulated at the time of appointment of individual members. In this context, the first year shall be deemed the business year in which the members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank were elected.

Each member of the Supervisory Board of the Bank may prematurely resign her/his post with a period of notice of three months. A notice in writing shall be delivered to the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board of the Bank, in the case of resignation of the latter to the Deputy Chairperson and to the Management Board of the Bank. The notice period may be shorter than three months if so proposed by the resigning member of the Supervisory Board in his/her notice and subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board of the Bank.

The General Meeting of the Bank may dismiss individual or all members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank even before the expiration of their term of office. A resolution on dismissal shall be valid if adopted with at least a three quarter majority of all votes cast.

Election of Members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank

Article 22 (Twenty-Two)

The Supervisory Board of the Bank shall at its first meeting after appointment elect from among its members a Chair and at least one Deputy Chair of the Supervisory Board of the Bank. A simple majority of votes of all members of the Supervisory Board of the Bank is required for appointment. If none of the persons nominated obtains a sufficient number of votes at first ballot, voting shall be repeated between the two persons who received the largest number of votes at first ballot. The person who receives the largest number of votes in the repeated ballot shall be elected to the proposed office.

If the term of office of the Chair or his/her Deputy is terminated, elections for his/her replacement in the period up to the expiry of his/her term of office shall be held at the first next meeting of the Supervisory Board of the Bank.

If the Chair of the Supervisory Board of the Bank is prevented from participation, their tasks shall be performed by the first deputy, if both are absent, by the next deputy Chair of the Supervisory Board of the Bank. If a Deputy Chair has not been appointed, the tasks of the Chair of the Supervisory Board of the Bank shall be performed by the member authorized in writing by the Chair.

Meetings and Resolutions of the Supervisory Board of the Bank

Article 23 (Twenty-Three)

As a rule, the work and adoption of resolutions of the Bank's Supervisory Board is done at the meetings either with physical presence of the members of the Supervisory Board or their attendance via a video or telephone conference which enables adequate discussion. Meetings of the Supervisory Board of the Bank shall be convened by the Chair or in their absence, by the Deputy Chair, by means of a registered letter to each member's address most recently communicated to the Bank, with a statement of agenda, venue and time of the meeting. As a rule, a meeting shall be convened 10 (ten) business days prior to the meeting date. In urgent cases, a meeting may also be convened by telephone, fax or by using similar technical devices, to the last telephone or fax number or e-mail address of a Supervisory Board member communicated to the Bank, not less than 5 (five) business days prior to the meeting date.

Unless stipulated otherwise by these Articles of Association, the Supervisory Board of the Bank shall constitute a quorum if convened in the correct manner and if at least one half of its members are present, of whom either the Chair or a Deputy Chair must always be present. As regards correspondence sessions, members present shall be those, who have cast votes for individual items on the agenda and those who have abstained from voting in respect to that same item.

The Supervisory Board of the Bank shall adopt resolutions by a majority of votes cast. In case of a tied vote, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of the Bank shall have the casting vote.

The Supervisory Board of the Bank may adopt decisions through correspondence or via telephone, by means of electronic media or some other method (hereinafter: the correspondence meeting). A correspondence meeting shall be permissible at the Chair's proposal, under the condition that such a manner of decision-making is not opposed in writing by any member of the Supervisory Board of the Bank not later than within the period specified in the convocation of the correspondence meeting. If a member of the Supervisory Board of the Bank does not oppose in writing to the correspondence meeting within the final deadline as specified in the previous sentence, it shall be deemed that such member agrees with the correspondence meeting. Resolutions adopted by telephone shall only be valid if each member of the Supervisory Board who voted by telephone confirms his/her decision in writing.

The work and method of voting of the Supervisory Board of the Bank shall be set forth in more detail by the Supervisory Board of the Bank in its Rules of Procedure.

Powers of the Supervisory Board of the Bank

Article 24 (Twenty-Four)
